

MedSLP Summit May 2023 (Pediatrics) Quiz

1. Which is not a common feeding challenge in children with congenital heart defects?
  - a. poor weight gain
  - b. suck/swallow/breathe discoordination
  - c. tongue thrust
  - d. poor endurance

2. True or False: The strategy of "a speech-language pathologist sends a copy of their evaluation and initial plan of care to a pediatrician, and follows up the next day with a phone call", is a great example of one way to improve interprofessional practice.

3. True or False: Parents in the NICU have increased trauma and mental health stress as compared to their peers.

4. True or False: Parent in the NICU are consistently supported by the community as they transition to home.

5. True or False: Education on tongue tie across disciplines is standard and in all university programs.
True or

6. True or False: In regard to tongue tie, it is important to evaluate the function and the structure before a procedure.

7. What are the sensory systems that impact communication?
  - a. vestibular
  - b. tactile
  - c. proprioception
  - d. all of the above

8. True or False: The four core competencies for Interprofessional Collaborative Practice include: Values/Ethics, Roles/Responsibilities, Interprofessional Communication and Teams/Teamwork.

9. In managing feeding difficulties of a child with CHD, what are 3 major things to consider?
  - a. prematurity
  - b. underlying cardiac physiology
  - c. where child was born
  - d. stage of cardiac intervention

10. Which of the following positioning practices for neonates, as it related to GER/GERD management, is LEAST supported by the current body of evidence?
  - a. Prone
  - b. Left Side lying
  - c. Elevating the head of the bed (positioning on an incline)