MedSLP Spring Summit 2021 Quiz Questions

1. A Home Exercise Program (HEP) should engage the patient for hours every day for maximum learning.
    a. True
    b. False

2. Multidisciplinary care of patients with tracheostomies can improve patient outcomes.
    a. True
    b. False

3. Which of the following is NOT a limitation to the use of s-EMG to treat dysphagia?
    a. s-EMG is a non-invasive means of monitoring/measuring muscle activity
    b. only measures the activity of surface muscle groups
    c. measurement of activity is non-specific
    d. successful use of s-EMG for biofeedback is dependent on clinician skill and observation

4. True or False: Type of aphasia is the primary factor in selecting a treatment approach.

5. This anatomical structure is a two-way tract involved in communication of both sensory and motor information.
    A. The corticospinal tract
    B. The internal capsule
    C. The nucleus ambiguus
    D. Thalamus

6. Which of the following is NOT a goal of Montessori for dementia?
    A. Help older adults transition into their role as recipients of care
    B. Allow older adults to be as independent as possible
    C. Allow older adults to make important contributions and have meaningful roles
    D. Boost older adults' self-esteem

7. The most important landmarks you need to look for when passing an endoscope are:
    A. The Inferior Nasal Turbinate
    B. The Nasal Floor
    C. The Nasal Septum
    D. All Of The Above

8. True or False: It is within a Speech Language Pathologist's scope of practice to screen for, diagnose the presence of tethered oral tissues and recommend release of these tethers.

9. True or False: There are standard protocols to wean for every diagnosis on a ventilator.

10. True or False: Completing daily jigsaw puzzles for 20 years is neuro-proactive.